

True or False?

- _____ 1. Our brains are wired to learn to read.
- _____ 2. Dyslexia is associated with, or linked to, an intellectual disability.
- _____ 3. Development of reading and IQ are dynamically linked.
- _____ 4. Dyslexia is a result of the home environment in which child is raised.
- _____ 5. Children can outgrow dyslexia or be cured.
- _____ 6. Most kids with dyslexia are boys.
- _____ 7. All children with dyslexia will present with similar struggles.
- _____ 8. Dyslexia is a visual problem.
- _____ 9. People with dyslexia see letters and numbers backwards.
- _____ 10. Writing letters and words backwards are symptoms of dyslexia.
- _____ 11. A child with dyslexia will not be able to read.
- _____ 12. If given time, most reading struggles disappear on their own.
- _____ 13. Dyslexia is really just laziness on the part of the child to not work to his or her full potential.
- _____ 14. Students with dyslexia need a phonics based approach to reading in order to be successful.